OCALA'S APPROPRIATION BILL PASSES THE HOUSE.

NO OPPOSITION IS ANTICIPATED IN THE SENATE—WE WILL SOON SEE THE ERECTION OF THE BUILDING.

Washington, D. C., June 26, 1906. Hon. Frank Harris, Editor Ocala Banner:

The house has just passed the public building bill as reported. I extend cordial congratulations to Ocala. S. M. SPARKMAN.

We return Mr. Sparkman the thanks of the whole people of Ocala. Anything that Ocala has and that he wants belongs to him. When he comes to Ocala again we shall get up a small sized earthquake in his favor.

Staley—Moore.

Notwithstanding the very hot weather, Dan Cupid has been shooting his arrows with unerring aim in this community, and as a result of which Ocala has been the scene of many pretty marriages lately.

One of these occurred Sunday at high noon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Moore on Bullock heights, when Miss Grace Moore and Mr. Edmund C. Staley were made "man and wife."

It was a quiet home wedding, and no one was present except the family and a few intimate friends. The marriage occurred in the parlor, which had been prettily decorated for the occasion. Rev. L. W. Moore, of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, performed the eventful ceremony in a most impressive manner. Mrs. M. I. Christie, of Plant City, the bride's eldest sister, presided at the piano and played Mendelssohn's wedding march as the bride and groom, accompanied by Mr. E. S. Goode and Miss Clara Moore, and Mr. Vance R. Withers and Miss Caro Mae Staley entered. After the ceremony the happy young couple were warmly congratulated, and the best good wishes of all present.

The bride wore a perfect fitting going-away gown of gray silk with hat, gloves and shoes to match, and left on the Seaboard train soon after the ceremony.

The bride is a resident of this city since her birth, and is a very charming person, both in person and manners, and has a host of friends who are interested in her marriage.

Mr. Staley is well known in Ocala, having held the responsible position of cashier of the Seaboard railway office in this city for upwards of two years.

Baseball Grounds Purchased.

We understand that some of Ocala's citizens who enjoy a game of ball occasionally have interested themselves and have purchased a lot near the colored Methodist church (brick), and will fence the same, build a grand stand, a back stop, and Ocala will then be in a position to play ball all right. This paper applauds the generosity of these gentlemen, and believes its doing so will receive an encore.

Prefer the Florida Pines.

Chicago, June 22.—Pineapples are meeting with a good sale. Florida stock seems to be preferred to Cuban, although the former fruit has a good deal of green top to it. Florida pines are exceptionally good and are bringing $2.65 to $2.85 a crate.

Card of Thanks.

Reddick, Fla., June 25, 1906. To the Editor Ocala Banner: Dear Sir:—Through the columns of your paper I desire to thank the many people of the county for the many favors shown, and support given me in the late primaries, and as Mr. Wartmann and Mr. Mathews will represent us in the coming legislature let us all render unto them our best aid, by petitioning them at the proper time to pass such legislation that will adjust the inequalities of taxation and lessen the extravagancies of our state administration. Yours truly, L. S. LIGHT.

The B. P. O. E. had a big time Tuesday night. Messrs. Frank Harris, B. E. McLin, Tom Harris and Marcus Frank were initiated into the mysteries of the order. Judge Bullock and Mr. G. S. Scott III. be initiated at the next meeting. The order in Ocala is growing rapidly.

A MARRIAGE ANNOUNCEMENT.

Mrs. Mary M. Clute announces the marriage of her daughter Katherine Spence to Mr. Arthur Snowden Miller

on Saturday, the twenty-third of June one thousand nine hundred and six Saint Louis

The bride is the daughter of the late Rev. Dr. O. Clute, a former president of the Florida Agricultural College at Lake City, and is a graduate of that institution and is a lovely and charming woman.

The groom is a former Ocala boy, a graduate of the same school and the marriage is the outcome of a very pretty romance of college life.

The groom has many friends in this county who will be interested in his marriage and extend to him their congratulations and best wishes.

A Big Crowd Go Down to Lake Weir.

Quite a large crowd went down to Lake Weir Monday afternoon and returned on the midnight freight.

The party consisted of the following:

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Weathers, Rev. George Hendree Harrison, Mrs. W. H. Powers, Mrs. Charles Rheinauer, Mrs. Gordon S. Scott, Misses Esther Weathers, Meta Jewett, Emily Ford, Louise Scott, Mattie Williams, Fannie Rogers, Sallie Camp, Annie Mathews, Anna Mixon, Mamie Wilcox, Alta Pearson, Mervin Ray, Ellen Bracken, Janette Weathers, Helen Brown, and Messrs. Ralph Birdsey, Emmett Robinson, Harry Palmer, Laurie Scott, Harry Walters, Jim Taylor, John Pelot, Ralph Robinson, Donald Schreiber, Willie Anderson, Phil Robinson, Bob Mathews, Brantley Weathers, George Ford, Charlie Standley and Frank Harris, Jr.

Though the time was brief, the party had a most enjoyable trip. They went boating, bathing and afterwards enjoyed a sumptuous lunch.

Mr. T. B. Ellis, the fertilizer man, of Gainesville, is a guest at the Ocala House. He is in a position to know, and says that the truckers are in better shape this year than in any previous season. Everything is in good shape throughout the trucking district. The orange growers have also a good season in prospect. The pineapple growers have also had a record breaking season. The "man with the hoe" in Florida has no tears to shed and nothing to lament.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Green left Tuesday afternoon for St. Petersburg. Mrs. Green and her daughter, Mrs. T. B. Snyder, have rented a cottage at this delightful place, and will spend the summer there. Mr. Green and Mr. Snyder will run down occasionally, as often as their business will warrant, indeed, and will spend several days hunting and fishing and enjoying life to the limit.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Williston and Montbrook will give a picnic at Williston on the Fourth of July. An excellent program has been arranged. Rev. W. J. Carpenter, of Tampa, will deliver an address. Everybody invited, especially Sunday schools and temperance unions.

Miss Nellie Gotlieb entertained at supper Tuesday night seven of her girl friends, viz.: Miss Jean Austin, Miss Sara Davis, Miss Elizabeth Newsom, Miss Minnie Stovall, Miss Helen Brown, Miss Hope Robinson, Miss Adele Bittinger. They enjoyed themselves dancing Virginia reels, minuets, etc.

Miss Margaret Spellman is in St. Petersburg and will spend some time with Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Green and Mrs. T. B. Snyder, who has rented a cottage and will spend the summer at this delightful resort.

Williston and Montbrook have a reputation equal to any section of Florida for hospitality and good cheer, and we hope that their Fourth of July celebration will be largely attended.

Miss Mamie Willcox, who has been enjoying a visit with her friend, Miss Alta Pearson, returned to her home in Gainesville yesterday.

The best rooms to be had in the city are to be found at the Hotel de Kaiser. The traveling public is invited to try us and be convinced. x
